A photo torn to pieces picture frame is broken I hope this book is closed now but it is still open

One last chapter left now is it neverending?
Truth comes late at nighttime
when the liar is sleeping

But when I'm awake I still dey (I still deny) that what I believe in is just a lie (just a lie) (2x)

Truth comes late at nighttime
when the liar is sleeping Daytime is illusion in his dreams he'S weeping

I've got this bok in my handy fingers can turn pages coward is the base of our liars fortess

But when I'm awake I still deny (I still deny) that what I believe in is just a lie (just a lie)
