There's a spirit that lives inside
You can see it within my smile
Through the rainbow that shines
Above in the sky I know I'm not alone

And the moment will see me through
As I watch all my dreams come true
My heart beats with yours and
Yours beats with mine, Every time.
I just close my eyes and think of you
I'll show the world they'll feel it too

Here I am I feel my wings
Oh let my free spirit soar
I reach up high and break
Right through Oh, I don't see any doors.

I have opened my arms to light
I have everything in my sight
Cause there's nothing that's Gonna hold me back tonight

I just close my eyes and think of you
I'll show the world they'll feel it too
Here I am I feel my wings
Oh, let my free spirit soar
I reach up high and break right
Through I don't see any doors

Where have I been
And where am I going
How much of life
Will I really get to know
All that I want is to be so free
And to have love to have love

Here I am I feel my wings
Let my free spirit soar
I reach up high and break right through
Oh, I don't see any doors
My free spirit soar

Oh yeah my free spirit soar
My free spirit soar
