Seal her with a kiss and close the envelope
I'm Valentineless but here's a love note
No candles lit, or fresh red rose but I'm not alone
As my left foot steps on the intersection
My other half is doing the same this second
The offer of love is leading us from above Pulling strings that we planned into one common thread

I could be waving down a taxi then he'll offer me a ride
On his bike through the city and maybe we'll be standing in line
For some coffee and strike up a conversation
Or I could be, I could be heading to the movies and hear someone yell Ms.
You dropped your photo I.D. and realize that this
Is the guy of my dreams, the one to spend my days
with

Oh, I could be but I won't go
Looking for love, looking for love, looking for love
I won't go looking for love, no
I won't go looking for love, looking for love
Looking for love, looking for love, no no

I know the time will come, no that's not my question
If you're the one is what I'm guessing
The spark is fun and you keep me laughing but there's more I'm after
Like how deep we connect, your level of respect
Do we agree on the man you're trying to be
I know patience is key

And maybe I'll be waving down a taxi then he'll offer me a ride
On his bike through the city and maybe we'll be
standing in line
For some coffee and strike up a conversation
Or I could be, I could be heading to the movies and
hear someone yell Ms.
You dropped your photo I.D. and realize that this

Is the guy of my dreams, the one to spend my days
with

Having this, the chance for a rise
What If I'm late, am I wrong
Perfect timing tells me to wait
Cause feeling is one thing
But the season for loving
Is still yet to come my way

You're worth it all, so I'll stay on guard Wait my turn cause I'm not in charge, no
And I won't, so I won't, no I won't

I won't go looking for love
Looking for love, looking for love
I won't go looking for love, no
I won't go looking for love, looking for love
Looking for love, looking for love, no no

Looking for love, looking for love
I won't go looking for love, no
I won't go looking for love, looking for love
Looking for love, looking for love, no no
