There's a train leavin somewhere from a station
There's a plane to almost anywhere, every hour on the hour

I can walk down any street, put miles under my feet
Movin on nothing, but will power

So tell me why, can't I get to you?
How can I make you feel, everything that I do?
If faith can move mountains
And love will see you through
Tell me why, can't I get to you?

I can't live in this silence that's come between us
Wonderin where you are, even when you're holding me
So tonight don't turn away, say what you need to say
We owe this love the honesty

Tell me why, can't I get to you
How can I make you feel, everything that I do?
If faith can move mountains, and love will see you through
Tell me why, can't I get to you?

Maybe there's a river I haven't crossed...
Maybe there's a bridge you need to burn...
I'm gonna keep searchin even though we're lost Keep on believin, there's another corner that we might turn...

Tell me why, can't I get to you
How can I make you feel, everything that I do?
If faith can move mountains, and love will see you
through
Tell me why can't I, no matter how I try,
Why can't I, get to you....
