Youre looking like a million dollars,
If love is money Im balla
You always answer when I call ya, alright, alright,
You got me noticing your haircut,
I even know your favorite starbucks,
I might even pull my pants up, alright, alright
I never thought Id delete my exs number,
I never thought I could change, yeah,
Im doing everything I swore Id never do,
But Ive never met a girl like you,
A girl like you
Check in, tonight, yeah girl, but one thing is true,
Ive never met a girl like you,
Well I was kinda broken-hearted,
Till you swept me off the market,
Now were shopping down at target, alright, alright
Youre like everything I like,
We even watched the game on a date night,
And you never pick a dumb fight, alright, alright,
I never thought Id delete my exs number,
I never thought I could change, yeah,

Im doing everything I swore Id never do,
But Ive never met a girl like you,
A girl like you,
Second to none, yeah girl, the one its true,
Ive never met a girl like you, a girl like you,
Second to none, yeah youre the only one its true,
Im doing everything I swore Id never do,
But Ive never met a girl like you,
A girl like you,
Second to none, yeah girl, so what its true,
Yeah youre the only one its true,
Ive never met a girl like you,
Im doing everything I swore Id never do,
But Ive never met a girl like you.
