Here comes the evil man
Pray for their lives you'll end
Smashing the gaudy throne
We throw it on[to] their bones

Like I'm losing with my wings in orbit
Try my best to make the moment awesome
If you remember not to tread with caution
I'll make your body speak in full distortion

I can't sleep at night, I fear death's warning
I keep afloat by holding tide so cautious
Somebody dragged me here, I'm trapped with wild horses
And now I'm losing and my heart is nauseous

Don't dance, don't dance, don't dance, don't dance
You can't win

Where there's freedom
There's freedom
Is this freedom?

Papa's left, papa's left
Papa's gone away from here
What is left in it's place?
Only our aching feet
You can see, you can see
Is there an exit here?
I believe, I believe
We're gonna leave this fear

Don't dance, don't dance, don't dance, don't dance
You can't dance
