Nine Ten

Sometimes its better not to stick bits of each other in each other for each other

You draw the curtains and ill paint the window shut resisting the bird song ill show you show you baby this is the way we can dance

its another day
its another day
its another day
its another day

its another day
its another day
its another day
its another day
