September shirt
I felt it every word
Woke up from sleeping in
The very shirt I'm in

I heard your words
Assembled every hurt
I could be crying in
My every glass of gin

(refrÃ£o)
'September shirt
Always been true
You came into view
When I tore into you

OH,September shirt
Pulled over my eyes
Wake and arise
Don't compromise'

September hurt
You left me in the dirt
I would be sleeping in
The very shape I'm in

September words
They echoed in my head
"You should've stayed in bed
You should've stayed in bed"

(repete refrÃ£o 2x)
