No need to hesitate
No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

Go ahead now I wanna show how Chances are thrown away unless we take 'em this way

I never had it, I never had it any better than I had it
I need a little bit of lovin', well I do
I need a little bit of love from you
But I know you only want what you can't have

No need to hesitate
No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

I say we stay up, they'll never wake up
I always hated it when you'd never stay 'til the end

I never had it, I never had it any better than I had it
I need a little bit of lovin', well I do
I need a little bit of love from you
But I know you only want what you can't have

No need to hesitate
No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

No need to hesitate
No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

You won't admit what we both know
I won't admit I can't let go
I won't admit what time has shown
You only want what you can't have

No need to hesitate
No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

No need to hesitate

No need to concentrate
No need to slow things down with conversation

yeah...
