it's been a long time since i've been flight 89 north american and it feels like the oceans caving in can't wait to get back on the ground again you gave up and they sucked you in and i scream out my problems are behind me and i just can't find the words to say i'm leaving what a fine time it has been waiting by the coastline for my ship to come in you only get what you put in
and it feels like the burdens are too heavy
