I see you with your book of good intentions that you haven't read
With your fear of confrontation
That's all in your head
Sorry that you so damn down
You said that you felt like you had been dealt a bad
hand
You did exactly what they told you in the end
I'd take you back under one condition
This is just a test
Overwhelming pressure pounding on my chest
Sorry that it's not my style
You said that you felt like you had been dealt a bad
hand
You did exactly what they told you in the end
Why should I try when my back is against the wall.
Why should I try when my back is against the wall.
You said that you fwhy should I try when my back is against the wall.
You did exactly what they told you in the end
