why am i not surprised by your condition when you look at me and ask me what to do and i say to you you need to think this through last time we had a confrontation it was a suplex situation and i'm not going to end up on the ground again. i'm staying out of this this is your own mess that you've got into have a cigarette hope the best turns out for you and i say you you need to think this through why can't we just laugh forget and move on let's make a toast from coast to coast for all the things we've done
