Visit "Unfaithful" on MotoLyrics.com

Are you safe and warm inside is your conscience clear tonight are you deceitful unfaithful here's your chance to make this right no matter how you feel inside are you deceitful unfaithful of lies

You're not telling me something I know you're haunted by the consequence that follows no one wants to be alone

When you take a look inside and swallow all your pride are you forgetful regretful I can see it in your eyes the darkness holds you tight you are deceitful unfaithful of lies

You cause this grief you can't believe that your wrong created this doubt you sold me out now it's on
