i will stand with my arms suspended 'til i hold you close.
break down those walls between us, let's be exposed.
just say what you want to make it heartfelt.
is it selfish of me to keep you to myself?

oh baby now

stay right here with me.
she's u.s. royalty,
she'll remain that way forever.
you are the smoke in my lungs,
you are the taste in my tongue,
you are the calm before the storm,
you are the blood in my veins,
you are the scotch to my fame,
you are the flood before the rain.
