So he says did you know IM your very best friend, I cant repeat this over, eye rings on the pillow, some think I might never really had the time, I thought you were my hero, never say that well be alive again.

the worst task coming and it will never get better run you down
said you in that way
