4 0' Clock I still can't find you
I'm scared of what our love has come to
I wait by the phone and I feel so alone
I cared for you
I think about the way you treat me
You care about your friends before me
Taken for granted and left empty handed
I needed you
Wish you could see
How much I did for you than me
And if I could
I would turn all the bad to good

Hook
Give me..just give me a reason
(Why should I come back to you?)
If you love me, then show me you care
Then I'll be there
Give me...just give me a reason
If you love me, then show me you care
Then I'll be there
(Boy why should I come back to you)
Can't you see how much you hurt me?
You give your love away so easily
I opened my eyes and saw all your lies
Now you're on your knees
I think about the way you treat me
To take you back you've got to show me
You say that you love me
So show me you care, then I'll be there
Wish you could see
How much I did for you than me
And if I could
I would turn all the bad to good

Hook

You know that I loved you
But you treated me so bad
You've got to change if you want me back
And maybe it won't hit you until you lose the one you had
