I can see them with my eyes
I can touch them with my hands
But I feel them in a rain storm or the deserts burning sands
Cause they always seem to find me when I'm unaware Sneakin up behind me when I'm in my easy chair
Bad new bad news I said hello to the blues
I can hear with my ears
I can drown them with my tears
When I feel the air grow colder there're lookin over my shoulder
Cause they always seem to find me unaware Sneakin up behind me in my easy chair
Bad news..bad news I said hello to the blues
I can shoot them with my gun
I can lose them if I run Someday I'll just walk away and be laughin when I say Never more will find me when I'm unaware
Sneakin up behind me when I'm in my easy chair Good news good news I said goodbye to the blues
Never more will find me unaware
Good news good news..good news I said goodbye to the blues
