Better run, better tell the others,
Cause I don't control it anymore.
Gonna find some kind of cover,
And let it burn.
You live and you learn.

Another time.
Another place.
Another time.
Another place.
They never change.

Everybody say they're going,
Gonna shut 'em down.
They get around.
Gonna come back with a story,
If they return.
You're gonna get burned.

Another time.
Another place.
Another time.
Another place.
They never change.
