i've been told where i should stand just this side of the line that says that is wrong and this is righteous don't cross that line and keep your voice down because no one wants to hear of other ways cause we all need to be saved from mistakes we've made but not me i'll live out my life the way i see and i'll sink my faith in what's in me and in truth and where freedom lives where we choose not damnation not lines that split us up and no i don't want to be saved from this world cause i believe it's beautiful and worth fighting for
