You followed me 'round the side
I asked you for a light
And a cigarette

When you've been up for days
You can't tell sunrise
From sunset, yeah

I'm running my mouth again
On things I cannot explain
On things that can't be changed
You know I would love to try

Kids are playing in the park
Leaves are on the ground
You said you wanna cry

Someone hit a home run
That we caught
On the other side, yeah

I'm running my mouth again
On things I cannot explain
On things that can't be changed
You know I would love to try

Ooh, everyday I'll raise my glass
To all that's yet to come
Let's make a toast

I fall in love everyday
What can I do?
But I love you the most, yeah

I'm running my mouth again
On things I cannot explain
On things that can't be changed
You know I would love to try
You know I would love to try
You know I would love to try
