Just a glimpse to turn a man into a child
Yes i know i'm a fool but heart rules mind
In my rains heart you make the sun rising.
He loves you, you are forever his
But my heart is a strong soldier, doesn't care
Oh baby give me a chance.
I wish open your heart to see if it's true
What you say is not what you feel
Give me a sign that i am here for you
That i excite, something in you.
Within the storm, baby if you don't trust me
Nobody knows, the pain that i feel
I try to escape, but you are always before me
I give you my heart and i go.
Run away to forget you, run away from my heart
Running into the storm, run away from your love
I must do it there is no choice
But the darkness will be always in me.
Time goes on, and that's drive me mad
In these sleepless wasted nights
I'm burning myself, for your killing word
Dirty women and drinking are not your eyes
Tears and rain: i feel wet on my face
The numbers have finished, the only way is now
Driving in the night and breathing without you
Within the storm...
Run away to forget you, run away from my heart
Running into the storm, run away from your love
I must do it there is no choice
But the darkness will be always in me.
Run away to forget you, run away from my heart
My love is screamin' for you
I must do it, there is no choice
But the darkness, will be always in me.
Rain falls much more, foot on the floor
I see dark outside, clear inside of me
I don't know where i go, four wheels seem crazy
I see the lights no more, my god i can't to stop
Yes, my rush, has finished now i fly
Far from you and far from your heart
Rain stops falling, forever for me

Within the storm...
Run away to forget you, run away from my heart
Running into the storm, run away from your love
I must do it there is no choice
But the darkness will be always in me.
Run away to forget you, run away from my heart
My love is screamin' for you
I must do it there is no choice
But the darkness will be always in me.
