Up and away,
Up and away,
Stop the world,
And save tomorrow, oh,
I know,
We're heading the wrong way,
The wrong way.

There's a fire igniting in my veins,
A spark in my heart,
A spark in my soul for you,
And You, Will see, Me bleed, For you.

And every morning I awake
To the echo's of our mistakes,
We can make it if we just keep heading straight.

But the closer we get,
The farther we are,
From having everything we want,
The closer we drive,
The harder we try,
To stand up tall, oh-oh.

The closer we get,
The further we fall.

Up and away,
(Up and away)
Up and away,
(Up and away)

Back and forth we go,
From the side walk into the road,
And with every step,
We catch our breath,
But we still got a ways to go.

Because the path we are walking is unclear,
And we can't see the way from down here,
So we try, we fly, over the skyline.

But the closer we get,
The farther we are,
From having everything we want,
The closer we drive,
The harder we try,
To stand up tall, oh-oh.

The closer we get,
The further we fall.

Up and away,
(Up and away)
Up and away,
(Up and away)

We fly so far,
We fall so fast,
We can't look down,
We can't move past,
And all the stars,
As they Collide,
They catch us fighting,
Fighting to survive.

Up and away,
(Up and away)
Up and away,
(Up and away)

But the closer we get,
The farther we are,
From having everything we want,
The closer we drive,
The harder we try,
To stand up tall, oh-oh.

But the closer we get,
The farther we are,
From having everything we want,
The closer we drive,
The harder we try,
To stand up tall.

The closer we get,
The further we fall.

Up and away,
(Up and away)
Up and away,
(Up and away)

Up and away,
(Up and away)
Up and away,
(Up and away).
