She told me that she loved but she's gone away
Death's coming
For I know now that no ones safe
Death's coming
She won't escape, she won't escape
She's never going to get away

Now my hearts alone as I wait to embrace
Death's coming
For I know now that no ones safe
Death's coming
She won't escape, she won't escape
She's never going to get away

Baby I know we will meet again
In the depths of hell I'll find you
And baby I don't care if it's wrong or it's right
We never had the choice to live or die
And on that day I'll find you there
In the depths of hell I'll be waiting
And baby I don't care if it's wrong or it's right
We never had the choice to live or die

Death's coming
Death's coming
Death's coming
Death's coming
