If you thirst when I start to bleed I'll know
It's in you
If the hunger inside you starts to grow
Then you're through

If I could end the world then I wouldn't think to hesitate
The sun won't rise another day

Dawn of the dead
No, dawn of the dead
No, dawn of the dead
The dead
No, dawn of the dead

If I could end the world then I wouldn't think to hesitate
The sun won't rise another day

If you thirst when I start to bleed I'll know
It's in you
If the hunger inside you starts to grow
Then you're through

If I could end the world then I wouldn't think to hesitate
The sun won't rise another day

Dawn of the dead
No, dawn of the dead
No, dawn of the dead
The dead
No, dawn of the dead

The sun ain't ever gonna rise again
The sun ain't ever gonna rise again
The sun ain't ever gonna rise again
The sun ain't ever gonna rise again

Dawn of the dead
