Faded pictures of lives we lived; do you remember?
One decision left everything frozen in time
Always

Do you remember?
What was promised?
Was it destiny to you?
Was it heaven?
You can't see
All invisible to you

Can't turn back from the path that you laid
It's how souls get lost and betrayed
This fragile thing we held so tightly to
Unraveling and closing in on you
On you

Do you remember?
What was promised?
Was it destiny to you?
Was it heaven?
You can't see
All invisible to you
To you, to you, to you

It's not meant to be
But if there is a will, there is a way
It's not meant to be
But if there is a will, there is a way
For us all
Us all (x3)
