I've been dreaming aloud
If you need me
I'll be right here for now
When theres a problem
Please ask
Theres no point in conversations
Being such a foreign task

Lets not fight
It could be easy if we try
Shooting for feelings that are too hard to describe
So if youre following me
Youre following me down

I cant get no relief no
To be searching for the better
The better part of me
I always feel so wrong
For evertime I mess up
I write another song
Ive always been wrong

So ive been singing all along
Shooting for feelings that are too hard to describe
So if youre following me
Youre following me down
Youre following me down

Shooting for feelings that are too hard to describe
So if youre following me
So if youre following me
So if youre following me
Youre following me down
