i did a casting call. it came out all wrong.
you got the lead role. you want the walk on.
the other passers-by they don't have clue that when i wrote the part i wrote it for you baby.
you try too hard to get it. it only takes a minute.
here and now. it's right in front of you.
it doesn't matter to you. you're only twenty and two.
like a canon. locked and loaded.

i hear your wurlitzer. i hear it playing a tune.
it's so beautiful. it's just like you.
it's in a minor key but has a major resolve.
i hope we can. i think we can after all baby.
the akward. the floating. the silence and the choking.
the mystery. urgency. the passion and the irony.
i hear you baby.
