(Next mother fucker going to get my metal) i cant wait to tell you-to kill you- I feel you- you mother fucker its my horror story- why dont you watch me- let me die- why do they cry- why do my mentals- my fucking brain- instant pain- the rock and rolls- got me on a knife train- you wanna fuck- do ya bro- you'll be the story- end the morning papers son- deep in the river- as i delvier- my sick rhymes to my fury- just another horror story.

to melt your mind with the rhymes that i bring- dont ever stay close 'cause i dont sing- i bring bad things to life- somebody stabbed me in the heart with one of those butcher knives- death to romance- right to my wicked rhymes- sad through time- embedded in the flatlines- page by my the page- i'm in and out with a rage- clouds through their minds when i'm on stage- i deliver my sick rhymes through the glory- i'm just another mother fuckin horror story.

(why are the children doing what they are doing? Why does this child reach up and kill his mom and dad? killing is killing whether its unforgiving property claim! killing is killing whether its unforgiving property claim!) i bring the stop thats known to be so wicked- fucking around and serious the pains inflected- i take no shorts wig splittin is my specialty- i leave you hanging from a tree- butcher the case- my thoughts are insane- close your mind- better get someone to wipe the blood stain- fade my name down- through my soul- trool- bloody soul- i got to go- my time is up- rest my soul or get fucked up.
