I used to walk to school
And shovel coal just for fun
I spent my summers
Fryin' in your tanning sun
I'm the one who did those things
How'd you think that they ever got done?

Starin' at me like you're a million, a million years old
Tellin' us things that we all, hell I've always known

Well these hands of mine
They'll never be the same
I spent thirty-five years
As a number, not a name
Aw...
Well I just need someone I can hold

Scarin' me like you're a million, a million years old
Tellin' us things that we all, hell I've always known

I used to walk to school [4x]
