I think you know who I am
And why I'm here tonight
I'll Take you round and round and round...
That's Right...

I don't think you know, who you been messin' with
I think you forgot I even exist
So tell me, where's your faith now that i've tested it
You oughta know
'Cause you're findin' out that the rules have been fixed

Baby, close your eyes now, you're goin' down
Come to my kingdom, your time has ended
There's no redemption, only sin - I love your sin

There are no angels that can rescue you you're outta touch, and you're out of time, baby all your lies destroyed the best of you and the rest of you is here, signed on the line
I'm your soul deceiver and I've come to take you home

Come to my kingdom, your time has ended
There's no redemption, only sin, baby
There's no place to hide you, you know that i'll find you
The fires of hell, will steal the light - and you'll be mine...

Close your eyes now, you're going down...

Come to my kingdom, your time has ended
There's no redemption, only sin, baby
There's no place to hide you, you know that i'll find you
The fires of hell, will steal the light - and you'll be mine...

And you'll be mine, yes, you'll be mine... tonight...
