Low black clouds hanging on my bed
Even when I close my eyes, I see you in my head
This is not the night with a pill to make it right
You kill me in the morning when the sun is at its height

Long lost heart cover me in love
You have seen the sweetest things, can you remember love?
Can you hear the crowd, can you hear the holy roar?
You have had the sweetest moments, now you have no more

Sweet soul child, long lost child
Walk back to me - dont close your eyes
Whisper your words and close to these ears
Long last the night, long last the night

Sweet soul mine - how deeper do I dive?
Every fear is frozen, now every tear is dry
Show me your emotions in a packard that you drive
Pretty soon well float away and you can blow your mind

Sweet soul child, long lost child
Walk back to me - dont close your eyes
Whisper your words and close to these ears
Long last the night, long last the night
