Sunshine out of the rain
And though you thought you'd never see her face again
You were wrong when you thought that you were losing
More than anything you ever had
Could you really see yourself as such a drag?
It was only just a moment that is bad

Do you remember when her silence was so thrilling?
When you drank together, kissing all the time
Do you remember when she touched you there so killing?
She made you close your eyes, so you could find Another man sleeping there inside
Coz all you did, all you did was hide

And she sees you as she wants to
And she needs you coz she wants to

Sunshine out of the rain
Theres a hundred ways to leave and turn your back again
And though youve broken every rule, youre still as lucky as a fool
Everything she does still turns you on Shes been the future of your life all along
Like the spirit of a never ending song

And she sees you as she wants to
And she needs you coz she wants to
Yes she sees you and she wants you
And she needs you coz she loves you

Sunshine out of the rain
And though you thought you'd never see her face again
More than anything you ever had
Could you really see yourself as such a drag?
It was only just a moment that is bad
And she sees you
