You said Something had to give
You said this ain't no way to live
Last Thing I wanted was to lose you
Now I have done all I can do

Girl, I have learned how to listen to you
I've learned when to walk away
I've Changed What Needed Changing
You know I've come a long way

So Here I stand on your doorstep
It still ain't good enough
I've done all I can, hear what you say
I, I Can't Make it Rain

I Tried to keep that fire lit
I can't make your heart forget
All Those Mistakes That I made
I have to live with it everyday

Girl, I have learned how to listen to you
I've learned when to walk away
I've Changed What Needed Changing
You know I've come a long way

So Here I stand on your doorstep
It still ain't good enough
I've done all I can, hear what you say
I, I Can't Make it Rain

I'd Move Heaven and Earth if I could
But Baby I ain't that good

Girl, I have learned how to listen to you
I've learned when to walk away
I've Changed What Needed Changing
You know I've come a long way

So Here I stand on your doorstep
It still ain't good enough
I've done all I can, hear what you say
I, I Can't Make it Rain

I, I Can't Make it Rain
