Filth, of lies we can't wipe away
Soiled skin, welts from corruption
My mind, Facing agony
Scrape up, what remains of me

You, your thoughtless
You, you lied again
You, you're breaking me
Deception
You, it's hopeless
You, I'm helpless
A prisoner set me free

You're ripping the heart out of me
And taking every piece of me

She's leaving everything in me

Cold, inside she left me this way
She'll never see, my scars of absolution
My life, a fuckin tragedy
Never ending, pain burns in me

You, your thoughtless
You, you lied again
You, you're breaking me
Deception
You, it's hopeless
You, I'm helpless
A prisoner set me free
