

How It Ends "Savior"

Forget everything you know
It's all just blasphemy
No faith, No purpose
We must, Rise above

One chance for a normal existence
It's time to take back our lives

Hold on to the things you love
They can all be ripped away
But my strength, my pride
Growing stronger as we rise
Rise above and Fight for your lives

One chance for a normal existence
It's time to take back our lives

Our one and only life

I Remember
Memories of a better day
With no, tears of sorrow
But my hope, my life
Growing stronger as I Rise
