

How It Ends "Thou Shall Not"

Visit "Thou Shall Not" on MotoLyrics.com

From dust and emptiness
Lay forth now my creation
This shell of flesh and bone
Worship the sacred lamb

You shall be my disciples
Show faith through Penitence

Crusade now through the wasteland
Walk now through parted seas
I shall forgive the righteous
Extend thy divine hand

Make ready my resurrection
Eat now from the tree,
Spread your plague through wine
Kneel before your god,
Immortal am I

You shall be my disciples
Show faith through penitence

Lead you not to temptation
Tears fall for forty days
You suffer my damnation
You take my name in vain
Make ready my resurrection
Fall from Grace
