It's not my fault if you didn't live out your youthful dreams

Now you want to backtrack, how different it all seems Love seems to be like alcohol, evaporates before your eyes

The bonds that once were welcome, become the chains we despise

When you cross that line, there's no turning back
When you cross that line, don't come knocking at my door

Everyone has got to take some responsibility
The grass is rarely bluer, but you wouldn't take it from me, no

Finding out the hard way can be an endless affair I'd stop you if I could, but then again, I wouldn't dare

When you cross that line, there's no turning back
When you cross that line, don't come knocking at my
door

I'm telling you when I say these words, that they're not spoken in bitterness

That destructive emotion has long ago left
And these tears I've cried are not the tears of regret They're tears that cleanse the soul and let me start afresh

When you cross that line, there's no turning back
When you cross that line, don't come knocking at my
door

When you cross that line, what more can I say When you cross that line, we are no more, we are no more

Cross, cross that line
Cross that line
Cross, cross that line, there's no turning back Cross that line, what more can I say
Cross, cross that line

Cross that line, what more can I say
Cross, cross that line
Cross that line
Cross, cross that line, there's no turning back now Cross that line, what more can I say
