Faded pictures of lives we live, do you remember?
One decision left everything frozen in time, always!

Do you remember what was promised?
Was it destiny to you?
Was it heaven, you can see?
All invisible to you.
To you!

Can't turn back from the path that you laid.
It's how souls (souls) get lost and betrayed.

This fragile thing we held so tightly to.
Unraveling and closing in on you, on you.

Do you remember what was promised?
Was it destiny to you?
Was it heaven, you can see?
All invisible to you.
To you, to you, to you!

It's not meant to be, but if there is a will, there is a way.
It's not meant to be, but if there is a will, there is a way
For a soul, a soul, a soul, a soul.
