I was standing in the pouring rain one dark November night
Fighting off the bitter cold when she caught my eye
Her face was taut and her eyes were filled and to my surprise
She pulled out a photograph and my heart just stopped
inside
She said, "He would have been three today. I miss his smile. I miss his face."
What was I supposed to say?

But I believe always, always
Our savior never fails
Even when all hope is gone
God knows our pain
And his promise remains.
He will be with you always

He was living in a broken world dreaming of a home
His heart was barely keeping pace when I found him all alone
Remembering the way he felt when his daddy said goodbye
Fighting just to keep the tears and the anger locked
He's barely holding on to faith
But deliverance is on its way
'Cause I believe always, always
Our savior never fails.
Even when all hope is gone
God knows our pain
And his promise remains

Friend, I don't know where you are
And I don't know where you've been.
Maybe you're fighting for your life
Just about to throw the towel in,
But if you 're crying out for mercy
If there's no hope left at all
If you've given everything you've got
And you're still about to fall

Well hold on Hold on
Hold on

'Cause I believe always, always
Our savior never fails
Even when all faith is gone
God knows our pain
And his promise remains
Always. always
He will be with you
