I can't live without You
I can't live without You
I can't live

The light has gone and darkness has covered me
The moon is hidden and my eyes don't see
Still I follow, still I follow

Beautiful is love revealed to me
Through the depths of my disparity, yeah
Even when I'm shattering
I know that You've got me, yeah, You've got me

When everything else is changing
You are constant
Lifting my eyes to see
Far beyond this misery

I am consumed with You
I can't live without You, breathe without You
I must confess to You
That I can't live without You, breathe without Your love

Perfectly ordained and formed with love
My heart has been designed for Your touch
So I will follow, I will follow

Stunning is Your glory, revealing
The hope that lives deep inside of me
And I know that You have captured me
You've got me, yeah, You've got me

When everything else is changing
You are constant
Lifting my eyes to see
Far beyond this misery

I am consumed with You
I can't live without You, breathe without You
I must confess to You
That I can't live without You, breathe without You

I am consumed with You
I can?t live without You, breathe without You
I must confess to You
That I can?t live without You, breathe without Your love

I can't live without You

Lord, I am consumed with You
I can?t live without You, breathe without You
I must confess to You
That I can?t live without You, breathe without Your love

I am consumed with You
I can?t breathe without You, breathe without You
I must confess to You
That I can?t live without You, live without Your love
