"Not Gonna Let You Down"

If you could run where would you run to now?
Where would you hide now that the truth is out?
And I know the fear you feel and I know that this is real

But please don't run from me 'cause everyone needs
somebody
Please don't run from me now, oh
I won't leave you, you're never alone wherever you go Please don't run from me now 'cause I'm not gonna let you down, oh

This is the hope that you've been longing to know
God is alive and He's never left you alone
So hold on through the tears

And please don't run from me 'cause everyone needs
somebody
Please don't run from me now, oh
I won't leave you, you're never alone wherever you go
Please don't run from me now

So come back, come back to life again
Where we can be forgiven
We're almost home, so don't let go

This is what we've been waiting for
He is the hope that heals the world
We're almost home, so please

Please don't run from me 'cause everyone needs
somebody
Please don't run from me now, oh
I won't leave you, you're never alone wherever you go
So please don't run from me now

Lift up your soul, soul, don't you let go, go Lift up your soul, soul, never let go
