One foot slips and the ladder falls
One life sinks in the undertow, still Your love goes on One heart cries into the night
One life waits to begin again, still Your love goes on and on

One taken far too soon
Our hopes and dreams left scarred
We've all been scarred

Still Your love goes on, oh
I see it and I feel it
And we're not alone, oh
I know that Your love goes on

One hope is never gonna change
One truth is certainty today that Your love goes on One promise covered all our shame
One Savior died to take the pain and His love goes on
and on

One taken far too soon
Our hopes and dreams left scarred
We've all been scarred, yeah

Still Your love goes on, oh
I see it and I feel it
And we're not alone, oh
I know that Your love goes on

How many dreams are leaving you cold
You never know why
This is the hope that transcended through time
We've got this hope tonight

One hope is never gonna change
One truth is certainty today, today

Your love goes on, oh
I see it and I feel it
And we're not alone, oh
I know that Your love goes on

Your love goes on, Your love will go on
