Not then, not for this anymore,
My life can't cope with this anymore.
Why make promises that I can't keep?
Not then, not for this anymore,
My cries have gone on way too long and I'm sure
I'll make promises I can't keep.

Doreen, now that you've said to me, what you've said to
me,
I know that it will be OK,
You made realise I'm happy with myself,
And others should be too.

Not then, not for this anymore,
My life can't cope with this anymore.
Why make promises that I can't keep?
Not then, not for this anymore,
My cries have gone on way too long and I'm sure
I'll make promises I can't keep.

Doreen, now that you've said to me, what you've said to
me,
I know that it will be OK,
You made realise I'm happy with myself,
And others should be too.

Doreen, now that you've said to me, what you've said to
me,
I know that it will be OK,
You made realise I'm happy with myself,
And others should be too.

Doreen, Doreen.

Doreen, Doreen.
Doreen, Doreen.
