I bet you think you've got it hard,
Well you don't.
Try thirty weeks without a conversation, then you'll know,
Then you'll know.

It's hard to find solace
When you're on your own.
It's hard to find solace
When you're on your own.

Stepped back, moved aside, from the beginning of
time,
Stand up, you're a "man", but you are no friend of mine,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.
So stop just before you're beginning to whine,
Stand up, stand up and admit to your crimes,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.

I bet you think it's hard to smile,
When all you want
Is not to be lonely anymore, and for someone else to save you
From yourself.

It's hard to find solace
When you're on your own.
It's hard to find solace
When you're on your own.

Stepped back, moved aside, from the beginning of
time,
Stand up, you're a "man", but you are no friend of
mine,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.
So stop just before you're beginning to whine,
Stand up, stand up and admit to your crimes,
I can't tell, but I will find a way

Because this ain't over.

It's lucky that there is this time, take control
Of what it is that makes you so unhappy,
It's lucky that there is this time, take control
Of what it is that makes you so...

Unhappy, and believe me when I say
We're unhappy, and believe me when I say...
Unhappy, and believe me when I say,
When I say.

Stepped back, moved aside, from the beginning of
time,
Stand up, you're a "man", but you are no friend of
mine,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.
So stop just before you're beginning to whine,
Stand up, stand up and admit to your crimes,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.

Moved aside, from the beginning of time,
You're a "man", but you are no friend of mine,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.
Just before you're beginning to whine,
You're a "man", so admit to your crimes,
I can't tell, but I will find a way
Because this ain't over.
