There's not much to say for being alone,
If being alone is where this is heading "And you my darling that's where you will go If you carry on as if singing your troubles helps solve them"

It always starts with a glance,
No care for the problems that we all have had from experiences
But glance turned stare we'll soon share and begin to care
About each others old problems as If they're our own, making the chance of this future
look bold,
By learning to not only reap but then sow, together

So then comes the time when trying to find a needle
In hay is like a reason for living When all's said and done and old songs have been sung, We'll leave hand in hand to try and make strong new feelings

It always starts with a glance,
No care for the problems that we all have had from
experiences
But glance turned stare we'll soon share and begin to
care
About each others old problems as If they're our own, making the chance of this future
look bold,

The small steps to making a new sound are found in the strangest of ways Cause I'm sure that everyone's someone can only be found when our eyes are not open There's not much to making a new sound, just turn around and stop running away Cause I'm sure that everyone's someone can only be
found when our eyes are not open

Is there too much here at stake?
To lose anything would mean there's something to gain So let us walk on just as we are Just as we are Always starts with a glance,

No care for the problems that we all have had from
experiences
But glance turned stare we'll soon share and begin to
care
About each others old problems

The small steps to making a new sound are found in
the strangest of ways
Cause I'm sure that everyone's someone can only be
found when our eyes are not open
There's not much to making a new sound, just turn
around and stop running away

I'm not sure that we care about each others old problems
About each others old problems
