baby's looking good in this bar here's hoping you stay the way that you are here at the bottom of the barrel if you haven't had kids so far the way that they'll be is the way that you are

when I lie awake at night see the light down the hall way it's just a small way alone in the belly alone when you go alone in the zone is all you ever get to know been traveling so far by train and plane and phone in car they've always made room so far there at the bottom of the barrel hearing you call one more time down the hall way just a small way everything's going to be ok even if it's not ok baby is a pattern of one baby, nothing new here under the sun nothing new here under the sun but my baby is a pattern of one a pattern of one there's nothing new here
