Draw it, imagine it,
It's hidden within our hearts
Now the star that's flying brilliantly, eternally, trust it's magic
The face inside people that get swept away all look alike
This time that I have right now Doesn't even know where it is
But close your eyes
Listen carefully, even if you lose your way
Search for the voices of the stars that are whispering from the sky
Draw it, imagine it
It's hidden within our hearts
Now the star that's flying brilliantly, eternally, pray for your wishes

Even if you insist that this is not it
I'm always at fault for someone else
What we're doing right now Isn't what we dreamed of
As much as hope's numbers
Even though we may feel disappointment
Still if we think of tomorrow
We can't just stand around
Draw it, imagine it
It's hidden within our hearts
Now the star that's flying brilliantly, eternally, pray for
your wishes
Having changed due to disappointment and scars
My form changes now
Start everything over again
Draw my dreams with my hand
Trust me, and open your heart
Even if it's a little hard, I'll face it
Now towards the closed doors
For our future
Draw it, imagine it
It's hidden within our hearts
Now the star that's flying brilliantly, eternally, pray for
your wishes
