in the morning, feeling half-right if it was more than just one day i'd feel all right
today is flat beneath the weight of next day, next day, next day, next day

ignore my condition just an isolated incident

appearing normal another isolated incident when my mind's uncertain my body decides what it will do to get through the hell of the night as I trip on the ocean that leads through your eyes well my eyes can't wait til they finally see through you when I get this feeling like I'm gonna start I just have to stop
