I was not looking for Linda, but Linda found me
Hiding away on the slow train home
'Is this one for Paisley? Oh you've got to help me'
(She used to work there a long time ago)
She spent 35 pounds on one pack of ciggies
Running an errand for him indoors
Then she kept running straight down to Leeds Central Took Intercity and left her remorse
I'm looking out for Linda...

Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda
(Looking out for Linda)
Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda
(Looking out for Linda)

I was looking at Linda, and Linda was pleased
She'd been fighting firewater all that day
She said 'me and drinking means only one thing'
Whispered that she was too polite to say
The train door was jammed but the time wasn't right

Some guy was holding her back from the window
I said 'a fine man' she said 'so arrogant!'
'I will decide when I go or I don't go'
I'm looking out for Linda in the rain

Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda
(Looking out for Linda)
Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda
(Looking out for Linda)

I was kissing with Linda as Paisley came closer
She's wiser than alcohol, master of men
Such a connection is finer than true things
I'll always be looking for Linda again

I'm looking out for Linda in the rain
I'm looking out for Linda

Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda
(Looking out for Linda)
Never stop looking, never stop looking for Linda

(Looking out for Linda)
