Baby I love, it's true, you get anything I want you to You sacrificed a fool, for me there's nothing that you wouldn't do

For me girl you have fire, I saw the spark
Know I was doing... in the dark
I should have known better, right from the start
Girl you're so beautiful, how did I break your heart

So she says, cry baby cry
No matter what I tries, you say goodbye
I can tell that she's through, no matter what I do
She says, cry baby cry
Karma is a bitch, karma is a bitch
Karma is a bitch, karma is a bitch
Oh me, oh my
The love, has died.
